2. Qualifications

[Full-time Positions]

1. Applicants must hold a PhD in a relevant field.
2. For positions in art, design (including architectural design), and performing arts, candidates with a Master's degree in a related field are eligible. Such applicants must demonstrate that their professional work meets international or equivalent standards. Preference will be given to candidates who hold a PhD. For a complete list of qualifications, please refer to the final pages of this announcement.
3. Preference will be given to candidates with an exceptional track record in academia-industry collaboration, research, professional work, and teaching within their field.
4. International candidates are welcome to apply and may be evaluated separately. Appointed international faculty are required to conduct all lectures in English or Chinese.
